

February has no minutes, as we had our Annual Meeting at the Moose Lodge in Edwardsville. Topics of discussion were: The silt project, nominations for new Board members, the upcoming election, and the vote on the silt management proposal. The results of both the election and vote on the silt proposal are posted on this website and in the Spring Newsletter.